“And it shall come to pass in that day, that his burden shall be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing.”

Isaiah 10:27

Figuratively, in the Bible a yoke is:

a) a symbol of restraint

b) a symbol of slavery / bondage

c) a symbol of partnership / agreement

with another

The yoke Jeremiah wore was made of a wooden bar or bars, tied by leather thongs to the neck of an ox or other work animal. It symbolized submission and servitude and underlined the prophet's urgent call to Judah and the surrounding nations to submit to Babylon. The false prophet Hananiah broke the wooden yoke. Jeremiah then forged an iron yoke and announced that Hananiah would die within the year. His subsequent death both judged the false prophet and authenticated Jeremiah as God's messenger. Yet even with this proof, the leaders and people of Judah refused to respond.

Jeremiah 29:11-14

Jeremiah 29:11-14
