Your life as a Christian should make nonbelievers question their disbelief in God.

1. Paul speaks of the faithfulness of God in the hour of temptation (10:11-13).

Repentance is more than a repeated apology.

Biblical change is not the absence of struggles but the freedom to choose holiness in the midst of our struggles.

A. God has not promised to shield
us from temptation (10:11-12).

B. God has promised to see us through temptation (10:13)

The temptations in your life are no different from what others experience. And God is faithful. He will not allow the temptation to be more than you can stand. When you are tempted, he will show you a way out so that you can endure.

1 Corinthians 10:13

2. Among all Israel's sin, idolatry appeared the most serious (10:14-22).

3. Everything is permissible but not everything is beneficial
(1 Cor. 6:12).

Just because something is technically legal doesn't mean that it's spiritually appropriate. If I went around doing whatever I thought I could get by with, I'd be a slave to my whims.

The Message

A. What believers can do (1 Cor. 10:23).

B. What believers should do (10:24-33). Since some weaker Christians might be offended by certain actions, mature believers should:

Since some weaker Christians might be offended by certain actions, mature believers should:

- 1. Do what they do for the good of all (10:24-30, 32-33).
- 2. Do what they do for the glory of God (10:31).

So eat your meals heartily, not worrying about what others say about you—you're eating to God's glory, after all, not to please them. As a matter of fact, do everything that way, heartily and freely to God's glory. At the same time, don't be callous in your exercise of freedom, thoughtlessly stepping on the toes of those who aren't as free as you are. I try my best to be considerate of everyone's feelings in all these matters; I hope you will be, too.
