CALLED TO HARVEST

LUKE 10:2-4

PS IMELDA MESA

1 After this the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them two by two ahead of him to every town and place where he was about to go.

2 He told them, “The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field.

Luke
10:1-12

3 Go! I am sending you out like lambs among wolves.

4 Do not take a purse or bag or sandals; and do not greet anyone on the road.

5 "When you enter a house, first say, "Peace to this house."

6 If someone who promotes peace is there, your peace will rest on them; if not, it will return to you.

Luke
10:1-12

7 Stay there, eating and drinking whatever they give you, for the workers deserves his wages. Do not move around from house to house.

8 When you enter a town and are welcomed, eat what is offered to you.

9 Heal the sick who are there and tell them, “The kingdom of God has come near to you.”

Luke
10:1-12

10 But when enter a town and are not welcomed, go into its streets and say,

11 Even the dust of your town we wipe from our feet as a warning to you. Yet be sure of this: The kingdom of God has come near.

12 I tell you; it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom than for that town.”

Luke
10:1-12
